

Hans Åkesson, Conductor

Hans is a member of the clarinet section in the Swedish Wind Ensemble. He is also a versatile saxophone player within the field of jazz.

Since the late 90's he has been frequently engaged as a conductor and as such has worked with SWE and various orchestras and ensembles. He has a very broad musical experience and has conducted operas, concerts and recordings of complex contemporary music as well as concerts with famous Swedish artists and jazz musicians. For the past few years, he is more or less considered the House conductor of SWE. One of the most spectacular events is the annual Lucia Concert at the Stockholm Globe Arena in December where Hans conducts three sold out performances before an audience of 35.000!
